

The Best Hotel Swimming Pools In The World

14th August 2018, Design

The Borgo Pignano in Tuscany, Italy

Italy is known for its culture, good food and scenic views; and this hotel encompasses all those aspects. The twenty-three rooms each boast fine Italian design, packed with art and unique furniture which gives each room their own personality. Chef Vincenzo Martella provides inventive Italian dishes that guests can eat on the Belvedere and look out upon the breath-taking views of the Tuscan countryside and medieval city of Volterra.

But the real star of the show at Borgo Pignano is its pool, carved from an ancient limestone quarry that provides views as far as the eyes can see. Looking out from the pool, guests gain a real perspective of the Tuscan countryside and its beauty, the dense forests and rich green hills span for miles. The pool area lends itself as the perfect location to sunbathe, with sun loungers and parasols available on the limestone terrace as well as a pop-up bar and a well-kept lawn.
